SYNOPSIS: Set in a remote reserve, Raining Sisters follows the journey of two sisters, Baja and Vee, after the untimely death of their late brother, Red. In order to properly lay him to rest, they must venture into a dark forest. Baja must relearn how to track when Vee suddenly goes missing, while also avoiding the monstrous being that lurks in the woods she once loved.

BAJA: Lead, Female, Indigenous, Age; 18-20s.

The youngest of her siblings. She tries to be silly in an attempt to cope with tense situations. Knows what needs to be done in spite of her carefree spirit.

VEE: Supporting, Female, Indigenous, Age; early 20s.

The second youngest of the siblings, overstrung with anxiety over the new amount of responsibility over her sister, Baja.

RED: Supporting, Male, Indigenous, Age; early to mid 20s.

The middle sibling, dotes on his two younger sisters. Often the victim of his older brother, Neo.

NEO: Supporting, Male, Indigenous, Age; mid to late 20s.

Takes the leader role although not very mature. He often torments his younger siblings as he is the eldest brother.

POLLY: Supporting, Female, Indigenous, Age; mid to late 20s.

The responsible one, twin sister of Neo, and oldest of all the siblings.
